The Dominican Leadership Conference sponsors Dominican Life | USA, which serves the entire Dominican Family: friars, nuns, sisters, laity and associates. The DLC relies on the financial support of individuals like you to help us fulfill our preaching mission to inform our readers on Dominican news, promote Dominican Life and inspire action for peace and justice.

Although DLC member congregations and provinces support the operating costs of the site, these monies do not fully sustain the electronic preaching that DomLife.org provides. That's where your help comes in. Your contributions help to fill gaps in our operating costs so that we can cover the news, write the stories and maintain the electronic media that give you access to information and stimulating Dominican resources.
